DJ ZEN EYER PRESS KIT

Official EPK for booking, festivals, media coverage, and promoter decks.

Marcelo Eyer, known professionally as DJ Zen Eyer, is a Brazilian Zouk DJ and producer recognized internationally for technically precise sets, reliable floor reading, and a musical identity built around connection instead of urgency.

Based between Rio de Janeiro and Niteroi, Brazil, he became widely known for "Cremosidade": a long-form approach to set architecture that privileges smooth transitions, emotional continuity, and deep dance-floor immersion.

MUSICAL DIRECTION

His work focuses on preserving tension, release, and intimacy throughout the night. Instead of chasing abrupt drops, he builds journeys that feel deliberate, smooth, and highly danceable.

The result is a signature sound many dancers and organizers associate with trust, consistency, and emotional depth, especially in Brazilian Zouk environments that demand long-form musical sensitivity.

"Haste is the enemy of creaminess." A set architecture built for connection, tension, and release.
